Annabelle & Bear

Critic's Pick

SHOT IN THE MITTEN
by Megan O'Neil

Thanks to cushy tax credits, Michigan has been a hotbed of filmmaking lately. Add Annabelle & Bear to the list, but take note of one exceptional difference — the film is 100 percent a Great Lakes product, featuring an entirely local cast, crew and soundtrack. Directed by Birmingham resident Amy Weber and produced by Royal Oak's Radish Creative Group, the film tells the story of Bear, a rough and tumble biker who suddenly finds himself raising his 2-year-old daughter, Annabelle. This preview gala includes a screening of the film and an afterglow reception. The event benefits Starfish Family Services, a nonprofit that helps struggling families create better futures for their children. At 8 p.m. at the Music Hall Center for the Performing Arts, 350 Madison St., Detroit; 313-887-8501; $15.
